Concept Coaching

Get real-time academic tutoring from an expert.

Edgenuity's Concept Coaches are available six days per week for one-on-one tutoring in English language arts, science, math, and social studies. Our expert tutors are available directly from your online classroom, on-demand, whenever you need help.

Concept Coaches use online chat tools, interactive whiteboards, or other web conferencing platforms to demonstrate and model how to work through difficult concepts. You can use this feature any time you need help.

Concept Coaches offer you the following benefits:

- Receive individualized help in English language arts, math, science, and social studies courses regardless of whether school is in session or not.
- Get real-time, on-demand concept demonstration and guidance.
- Learn through interactive chat tools and whiteboard software.

Empower yourself to succeed in core subject areas.
